

Sanctuary

RAGE! and the machine
RAGE! and the machine

without oxygen
I reveal the dead machine
I repair the stillness
It is limited
I bring it back to life
to find Sanctuary machine is there
deep within the underworld
where Vulcan dwells I imagine myself there in magma forge below
anchored deep with the machine Vulcan the god of disability downcast to below
crippled by the fall broken one and all
repair in the forge

within the machine

it does not breathe

it is intelligent
repair the failure
repair the failure

Vulcan

repair repair

Vulcan

repair
repair

RAGE! and the machine
RAGE! and the machine

What is machine without redemption?
What is want without retention?
What is goal without intention?
What is joy without suspense?
